PRE-CONFERENCE – “Conference on Advocacy” October 23-24, 2010

Saturday, October 23, 12:00pm - 4:00 pm and Sunday, October 24, 3:00pm – 5:00pm

This conference is geared specifically at building advocacy skills and is designed to support continuing development of participants and to engage them proactively in strengthening the library’s presence on campus. Attendees will learn how to interpret and use data from an updated “State of Libraries at HBCU’s.” The agenda includes discussions on critical indicators for success in the HBCU library community.

The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation is generously supporting this event and will reimburse the expenses of one Leadership Institute participant (I, II or III) from each of the 55 HBCU institutions that have participated in the program. Grant funds will reimburse travel accommodations up to $375.00, one night’s hotel accommodations, meals and class materials. Attendance is required at both sessions to receive reimbursement.

Don’t miss this outstanding Pre-Conference! Will you attend? Yes No
